DETAILED ACTION

Faxing of Responses to Office Actions

In order to reduce pendency and avoid potential delays, TC 3700 is encouraging FAXing of responses to Office Actions directly into the Group at (703)872-9302 (Official) and (703)872-9303 (for After Finals). This practice may be used for filing papers which require a fee by applicants who authorize charges to a PTO deposit account. Please identify the examiner and art unit at the top of your cover sheet. Papers submitted via FAX into TC 3700 will be promptly forwarded to the examiner.

1. After further consideration of the amended claims, the examiner has withdrawn the previous final rejection in view of the newly discovered references. Rejections based on the newly recited references follow.

Art Unit: 3722

Terminal Disclaimer

2. The terminal disclaimer filed on May 19, 2004 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of U.S. Patent No. 6,547,502 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It is not understood what is meant by “second spreader forces opens and guides..” Should this limitations state “forces open”?

Art Unit: 3722

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claim 14 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 and 7 of U.S. Patent No. 6,000,896. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both disclose a coil spreader system comprising: two spreader members, wherein one member is insertable within respective coils at a respective point before the leading edge of the spiral enters a final hole, and another spreader member.

However, Spiel does not disclose: a second spreader member for significantly spreading apart the leading edge of the plastic spiral at the last hole of the row of holes to compensate for the first and last holes having bridge distances from ends of the book greater than a predetermined spacing of the holes; and wherein the second spreader member forces open and guides the plastic spiral after the plastic enters the trailing hole.

In regards to the second spreader member used for spreading apart the leading edge of the spiral at the last hole, a recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim. In a claim drawn to a process of making, the intended use must result in a manipulative difference as compared to the prior art. Therefore, the second spreader member of Spiel ('896) is capable of spreading apart the leading edge of the plastic spiral at the last hole of the row of holes to compensate for the first and last holes having bridge distances from ends of the book greater than a predetermined spacing of the holes.

In regards to the method wherein the second spreader forces open and guides the plastic spiral does not structurally limit the claim. The patentability of a product does not depend on its method of production. If the product in the product-by-process claim is the same as or obvious from a product of the prior art, the claim is unpatentable even though the prior art was made by a different process (see MPEP 2113). Therefore, it would be obvious to use the second spreader member to force open and guide the plastic spiral.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 16 and 17 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Prior Art References

The prior art references listed in the attached PTO-892, but not used in a rejection of the claims, are cited for (their/its) structure. Fabrig ('196) and Fabrig ('766) further disclose a similar spiral binding machine.

Art Unit: 3722

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 14, 16 and 17 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim 14 is now rejected under Spiel (6,000,896) for double patenting as stated above. In regards to applicant's amendment, the method wherein the second spreader forces open and guides the plastic spiral does not structurally limit the claim. The patentability of a product does not depend on its method of production. If the product in the product-by-process claim is the same as or obvious from a product of the prior art, the claim is unpatentable even though the prior art was made by a different process (see MPEP 2113). Therefore, it would be obvious to use the second spreader member to force open and guide the plastic spiral.
